

My Dear M^r Mylne

M^r Elliot, whom you know, is to dine with us next Saturday and be trust our Nephew William also.
Will you be one of the party? it will give us much pleasure if you will. Our house is fine. — Give our love

Love

to M^{rs} Mylne & the Children.

I hope they enjoy this bright spring weather. —

I cannot give you a very good report of your old friend here, but I trust she will be better before Saturday. —

Hoping, for a favorable answer,

I remain, My dear friend very faithfully yours
